

It has been absolutely wonderful this past year not being bothered by telephone communications. We used to receive numerous phone calls weekly and now not even one. Indiana's privacy law has been very effective and I strongly urge the FCC to NOT implement any law that would override or lessen the strength of our state bill. My family is absolutely not interested in having calls morning, noon and night from telecom people. Thank you. Jane Langeloh